RELEASED

POSTING OF THE NAMES OF CONFIRMED SHS GRADUATES ON THE SCHOOLS DIVISION OFFICES' WEB SITES

To: Schools Division Superintendents
 Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
 All Others Concerned

1. To help facilitate the upcoming enrolment of those public Senior High School (SHS) graduates who may pursue college/university education, the Schools Division Offices (SDOs) are directed to (1) prepare official lists (names excluding the grades) of confirmed SHS graduates for SY 2019-2020, signed by both the school principal/head and the schools division superintendents/assistant schools division superintendents, and (2) post these official lists on the SDOs' official Web sites not later than May 31.

2. These official lists will serve as one of the HEIs' validation documents in facilitating the temporary enrolment of public SHS graduates interested to pursue college/university education. Hence, the parents/guardians and students need not crowd in schools to get the school records. This initiative will likewise assist the colleges and universities facilitate their enrolment processes consistent with the COVID-19 guidelines/protocols of the Office of the President (OP), Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF), and Department of Health (DOH) particularly on physical attendance and social distancing.

3. As soon as mobility is allowed, the students and parents/guardians must get the students' official school records from their respective high schools and submit them to the concerned colleges/universities to make their temporary enrolment status permanent as per policy and agreement with CHED Region X.

4. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum is directed.
